Heavier Varsity Team Held Helpless by Brilliant Play of Red and White Fourteen—McGill Had More Plays than Varsity who Played Somewhat Old Fashioned Football—Fast Tackling Smothered Varsity's Runs

Champions! Champions! Champions! By defeating Toronto Varsity at Lansdowne Park, Ottawa, on Saturday afternoon McGill won the championship of the Intercollegiate Rugby Union for this season. The game was the finest exhibition of football ever seen in the Capital or in fact in any other city in the Dominion. Last year's champions were completely overwhelmed by the magnificent playing of the McGill Team who once and for all demonstrated that they are the superiors of Varsity in every department of the game. The final score was 14-3 and just about shows the relative merits of the two teams. The teams went on the field determined to play the game of their lives and the style of football they put up has never been equalled in the past, or likely to be in the future. Right from the start McGill rushed matters and scored the only touch great gains by their wonderful playing for which they have been so noted. Right after half time Varsity started with a rush and carried the ball up into McGill territory against the wind, but McGill's marvellous punting soon relieved and Varsity's spurt did not bring them anything. The marvellous kicking of the McGill back division was perhaps the most remarkable feature of the game and certainly played a tremendous part in the result. Billington more than kept up his reputation; he excelled himself. Our backs kept on returning kicks all afternoon and by their splendid headwork kicked first at the right time and never kicked when there was a chance of it being blocked. Our backs by returning the kicks nearly every time completely wore out the Varsity wings and saved their own wings a great deal of running. The catching of the McGill of the game after about five minutes had been played; the Red and White scored more points in the first quarter than both teams together scored in the rest of the game. There was a fairly strong wind blowing, which accounts for nearly all the scoring being done at one end of the field. It was only in the last quarter, when with the wind against them McGill forced Varsity back to their own line and then on a muffed kick Varsity had to kick over their dead line to save a touch, that any scoring was down against the wind. McGill in the last quarter played stellar football of even a more spectacular style than they did early in the game. In this period they held Varsity perfectly and magnificent running by George Laing and the back division kept the play well away from McGill's line most of the time. Varsity only once managed to make any backs was also something wonderful and time and again when it looked as if the man could not reach the ball he would seemingly just stretch himself a little and gather it in. McGill resorted almost entirely to the kicking game, up to the last quarter when she tried the running game. At this latter style of play our backs showed themselves just as capable as in every other phase of the game. McGill's line plays were not as noticeable as in former games but this was because she did not try them very often. Only on a few occasions did Sinc McEwen call for a buck or trick play as the kicking game seemed to be our best asset. McGill was penalized only once for offside interference on the line. Varsity's kicking was good as far as it went. Gontier kicked well behind the scrimmage but the Varsity (Continued on page 2.)

CHAMPIONS!

On Saturday afternoon the football team proved their undisputed superiority over the crack fourteen from Toronto University. In a clean hard fought game the McGill men showed their ability to play on a field which was if anything, the best they have played on since the opening game in Toronto. Varsity are good losers; they admit freely that the better team won.

The credit for this victory belongs largely to one man, the coach. Shaughnessy sent a team on to the field in Ottawa trained to the minute. He had worked hard to make the team reliable and sure at every style of play and Saturday's victory must have amply repaid him for his painstaking trouble. Had the team lost to Varsity in Ottawa every member of the team and every McGill supporter would still have said that Shaughnessy has not only proved himself the finest coach in Canada but also an allround good fellow.

Never before in the history of football at McGill have a team proved so persistent in their training and consistent in their playing. Never before has an Inter-collegiate fourteen spent such long hours in hard grinding practice. Unselfishly and uncomplainingly the men have gone through the hardest grind ever undertaken by a squad and if ever a team deserved a reward for their efforts it is Jimmy Lee's boys.

Should the team decide that they do not want to play off for the Canadian honors that is their privilege. They have amply proved their loyalty to their Alma Mater. Football critics admit that if they so choose they can probably bring the other championships to McGill also. If they do not choose to make a further sacrifice of their time we will all say, Hail Alma Mater. Here's to the finest coach, captain and team we have ever had. May they keep the championship at Old McGill next year again!

THE JUNIOR DANCE!

There are many social functions and entertainments during the College year which serve as a pleasant break in the ordinary routine of the academical work at this University. In the past Theatre Night was perhaps pre-eminently the most anxiously awaited of these as every undergraduate participated in the evening's enjoyment. The Seniors and Juniors in the role of fussers and the sophomores and freshman as noise makers. This year however it was thought advisable to dispense with Theatre Night and it remains for the Junior year to open the season gayeties with a dance.

This year the Junior Dance Committee plan to eclipse all their predecessors by providing a floor, an orchestra and a supper which will call forth enthusiastic comments from all who are fortunate enough to be present next Friday night. Not satisfied with merely having the floor polished, the energetic executive are actually having it planed. The orchestra will be the finest procurable and the programme of music provided would move Orpheus to envy, while the supper will rival in lavishness the epicurean feasts of the fastidious Romans.

backs were weak on returning kicks and seemed to prefer to try and run the ball back than to kick it. Maynard and the other Blue and White half-backs ran well but our tackling was so deadly and sure that they really never got away for their once famous passing run. Varsity's line work was more prominent than their opponents but this was chiefly because they used their wings oftener than McGill. In the second quarter when Varsity had the ball on McGill's five-yard line they were absolutely unable to make a yard in three downs and McGill was given the ball. This was a superb piece of defensive work on McGill's part but is only a sample of the style of play McGill put up all afternoon.

The particular star of the afternoon was George Laing, our great outside wing. George played a truly wonderful game and his tackling was deadly all afternoon. The way Laing blocked Varsity's pass in the first quarter and then recovered the ball and carried it over Varsity's line for a touch down was simply magnificent. This was the second time this year that Laing had done this against Varsity. Later in the game George did practically the same thing but Hendrie called him back for offside. The great feature of the game was pulled off by George Laing in the last quarter. On the kick-out from a rouge, George was given the ball and by one of the finest bits of dodging running ever seen at Lansdowne Park he eluded tackler after tackler and carried the ball 50 yards up the field. This was certainly the most spectacular play ever seen in Ottawa and every spectator—Varsity and McGill alike, rose to his feet and cheered George.

Billington's kicking was wonderful, and had directly more to do with the result of the game than any other part of McGill's play. Billie kicked in his very best form and kicked like this, not only behind the scrimmage, but also when he was returning the kicks. Unfortunately of the three drops Billie tried two of them were blocked but the other netted one point. In the last quarter Billie repeatedly ran the ball back ten and fifteen yards before returning and dodged the Varsity tacklers in remarkable manner. Billie certainly demonstrated once again that he is by far the greatest kicking half-back playing the Canadian game.

Paisley who played most of the game put up a beautiful game and handled everything that came his way in perfect style. He never once even looked as if he was going to drop a catch and returned Genter's kicks splendidly. "Pep" was forced to retire in the last quarter owing to injuries received in a tackle, but he was able to walk off the field all right. Paisley is a great little half-back and one of the brightest stars in a game in which every McGill man was a star.

Captain Jimmy Lee in prominence all the time and his tackling was just as sure and just as hard as it ever has been. Jimmy on several occasions was the rock on which Varsity's backs came to grief. Lee was getting right in underneath Varsity's line plays and stopped them time and again. Lee was unfortunate to be ruled off but this was for interference and not for any rough work, which is the last thing anybody would think of accusing our great captain of.

George Draper put up the same wonderful class of football displayed by the rest of our great back division and played faultlessly from the beginning to the end of the contest. Once when Genter broke away for a run it was George who chased him and brought him down by a beautiful tackle. Draper is a very steady player and caught everything that came his way. George kicked every bit as well as Genter and twice returned kicks that soared over the heads of the Varsity backs and brought great applause from the crowd.

McEvenue, at quarter, handled the team perfectly and used the right kind of play at the right moment every time. Sine put up a nice brand of football himself and his placing of the inside kicks could not have been improved upon. On a couple of occasions Sine went through Varsity's line, on trick plays, for a big gain. He was also prominent in the tackling and catching, and gathered in two or three of Varsity's inside kicks in fine style.

Jack Lewis, shared with Paisley, the honor of being Ottawa's pride on Saturday. Jack's spectacular dive tackles were splendid and he nailed Cuzner and Crawford on more than one occasion by his great tackling. Jack blocked one of the Varsity men and held him, early in the game, and unfortunately Hendrie saw him and ruled him off for two minutes. Jack is noted for his very clean game and even those who did not see what had exactly happened knew that it could not be for anything dirty.

Montgomery and Woollatt both played very good games and are very deserving of praise. In fact the whole McGill team played a remarkable game and the wing line by their tackling and work on the defensive showed that they were the finest wing line that ever was known in the Intercollegiate Union.

Jack Maynard who was expected to do so much for Varsity was watched so carefully that he never got away for a big gain at all. He put up a brand of football nevertheless that marked him as a high class player. In the last quarter towards the end of the game Maynard fumbled one catch but this was practically the only one he missed all afternoon.

Charlie Gage, Cuzner, Campbell, Genter and Clarkson were the stars of the Varsity team, every one of these played good football and football of a class that would have beaten any team but McGill's superb aggregation of stars. The tackling of the McGill wings practically reduced the effectiveness of Varsity's end runs to nil. Genter made a nice run in the second quarter for a gain of about twenty-five yards. He used his head all through the contest and showed great improvement over his work of the previous Saturday. Crawford who replaced Cuzner who was rather badly hurt in the third quarter played a steady game and showed that he is a speedy little man.

The officials on the whole were entirely satisfactory and were just about as good as could be expected. The ruling of Lewis and Lee, two of the cleanest men on a clean playing team, provoked some criticism, especially when it was known that Jimmy was off for five minutes. The calling back of George Laing when he intercepted one of Varsity's passes and ran across their line with the ball, looked a little raw to McGill supporters, but they afterwards conceded that it was all right.

The players all went out to the grounds on Saturday morning and had a look at the field. The ground was firm enough to give a sure foothold and there was very little snow on it. The baseball diamond was covered with sawdust which worked all right. The stand was filled to its utmost capacity and this was the largest crowd ever seen at a football match in Ottawa. The automobiles were there in great numbers and they made a solid wall down one side of the field and on the other side were backed as thick as possible against the grandstand.

Each team had a great number of supporters. McGill probably had at least one thousand students up from Montreal and when the special arrived at noon on Saturday and the Rooters' club marched uptown McGill had reason to be proud of the good college spirit shown by the students in supporting the team in such numbers. Varsity had about two or three hundred supporters down and up till the time the McGill special arrived had things practically their own way in Ottawa; but from then on everything was McGill's.

A great lot of money was staked on the game and ten thousand was up at the Russell House alone. All money was at events but there was plenty on both sides.

After the game the team felt fine, and Paisley who was the only McGill man who had to be replaced, when interviewed on Saturday evening in the Russell House said that he felt fine and was all right again. Captain Lee and Coach Shaughnessy both made speeches in the rotunda of the Russell House after dinner. Jimmy said that the team was very grateful for the fine support given by the students and that he wanted to thank every one of them on behalf of the players for the great part the student body at large had played in assisting the team. Frank Shaughnessy also thanked the students for their encouragement from the stand and said that McGill students had on that day had shown that they knew how to behave as gentlemen and that Ottawa would have no reason to think ill of them. Frank also said that he was glad that we had had a dry field as we had shown Varsity that we could play as well if not better on hard ground. He also praised Varsity for the way they had taken their defeat which they took like perfect sports and with the best of feeling.

Great praise and the gratitude of the whole College ought to be given to "Shag" for the tremendous care he has taken with the team and for the ability he has shown, by turning out the best football team that McGill or any other Canadian College has ever known.

The general feeling among the players seems to be that a play off with Argonauts would take too much time and they will probably stop football and settle down to studies from now on.

THE PLAY.

Sharp at 2.30 Dr. Hendry and Walter Molson called the men to the centre of the field and after a short talk Dr. Hendry flipped a coin and McGill won the toss. Jimmy Lee chose the West end of the field which gave McGill the benefit of a slight wind and the sun at their backs if it should come out.

Varsity kicked off to Paisley who returned to Maynard who was held on his own 45 yard line. Varsity tried their old reliable, an end run, Campbell to Maynard for no gain and surprised the crowd by getting their yards by two bucks. Varsity first down, a middle wing buck for no gain and on second down Genter kicked to Draper who returned to same place where Genter is held at centre field. On first down Varsity failed to gain by end run and Genter kicked to Paisley who returned and Varsity are held on their own 45 yard line. On first down Varsity kicked to Billington who made a wise catch but tried to pass to Paisley after being tackled and the ball went wild but Paisley dropped on it. On the first down Billington kicked to Genter who fumbled and the ball rolled in touch. McGill ball on Varsity 45 yard line. Again Billington kicked on first down and Maynard ran it out from behind his own line.

Varsity tried a buck for no gain, and Genter kicked to Billington who returned to Cuzner who was thrown by Lewis on his own 35 yard line. On first down Campbell tried a pass

The City of Ottawa was a perfect place of color on Saturday and by noon Red and White ribbon was very hard to get.

A Western Correspondent, writing to a friend in the East, said:

"Everything is from 50 to 100 per cent higher out here except Semi-ready Clothes and Postage Stamps!"

And he concludes, "These are the only things that are the same price as in the East."

Always the Same
—Semi-ready—

The same price everywhere in Canada—the plain price, marked in the pocket always—and you may depend absolutely upon the value being the same on the Pacific as on the Atlantic Coast—and the same in Montreal, where Semi-ready Clothes are made.
